

code of honor

1. I will respect the personality of every child, youth and adult and support their development. I will respect the individual feelings of closeness and distance, the privacy and the personal boundaries of shame of the children and young people entrusted to me, but also of the adults and the other members of the association.
2. I will guide children, young people and adults in their self-realization to appropriate social behavior towards other people. I would like to educate them to behave fairly and respectfully towards people and animals inside and outside of the sporting activities and to teach them to deal responsibly with nature and the world around them.
3. I will always align sporting and non-sporting offers to the developmental level of the children, young people and adults entrusted to me and use methods suitable for children and young people.
4. I will always try to provide the children, young people and adults entrusted to me with a fair framework for sporting and non-sporting activities.
5. I will pay attention to the physical integrity of the children, young people and adults entrusted to me and will not use any form of violence, be it physical, psychological or sexualised.
6. I will ensure that the rules of the respective sport are observed. In particular, I assume a positive and active role model function in the fight against doping and drug abuse as well as against any kind of performance manipulation.
7. I offer the children, young people and adults entrusted to me sufficient opportunities for self-determination and co-determination for all sporting and non-sporting activities.
8. I respect the dignity of every child, young person and adult and promise to treat all people equally and fairly, regardless of their social, ethnic and cultural origin, belief, religion, political belief, sexual orientation, age or gender, and to act against any of these kinds of discrimination and anti-democratic ideas.
9. I would like to be a role model for the children, young people and adults entrusted to me, always convey compliance with sporting and interpersonal rules and act according to the laws of fair play.

10. I undertake to intervene if there will a violation of this Code of Ethics in my community. In the event of a “conflict”, I call in professional technical support and help and inform those responsible at management level. The protection of children and young people is the top priority. Of course, I will also protect the adults.

11. I promise that my dealings with adult athletes will also be based on the values and norms of this code of honor.